HOLIDAYS HOMEWORK (2016-17)
CLASS IV

Note:- Do all the written work in separate note books.

Cover and decorate home work note books and scrap files. The best work will be rewarded.

ENGLISH:-

➤ Conversation Writing

Nature has enough for everybody's need but not for one's greed. The need of the hour calls for the judicious use of the gifts of nature. Trees are our friends. On A-4 sized sheets, write a conversation between a tree which knows it is going to be cut and a child who waters the tree and looks after it, promises to save it.

➤ Writing Practice

Do one page of writing thrice a week in a separate copy.

➤ Creative Work

Gandhiji's three monkeys and their messages – 'See no evil', 'Hear no evil' and 'Speak no evil' are quite well known. Draw three monkeys on an A-4 sized sheet and write three messages that you want them to convey pertaining to the present situation in the world.

➤ Make two attractive bookmarks with inspirational quotes written on them.

➤ Book Review

Books are the quietest and most constant friends, they are the most accessible and wisest of counselors and most patient teachers. Moreover books are not lifeless papers. You may read any one of the following books-

- Panchtantra Stories in English
- Malgudi Days by R.K. Narayan
- The Jungle Book by Rudyard Kipling
- The Adventure of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain

After reading the book write a review (100 words) of any one of the books read. (Do this work on A-4 ruled sheets)

- Write about the author
- About the characters
- Your favourite character
- Number of pages
- What did you like about the book?
- Draw the cover page also.
